

Walden I. Hayden
Casualty of World War II

Walden I. Hayden, husband of Arleen Webb, was born at Hunter, Utah July 7, 1905.

He enlisted in the Navy at the age of 17, and continued in that service until his death, when he was reported missing in action August 1942.

He leaves two children, Ray and Elaine, who are living with their mother in Pleasant Grove.